

OLTD 512- Instructional Design

Exploring instructional design models, theories and schemas for supporting effective teaching and learning online. The course will also integrate OERs to support student success.